2012 HONOREES

KATHLEEN MCGAUGHAN

• • •

Kathleen McGaughan lives in Irvine with Terry, her husband of 46 years. She is the proud mother of two and a grandmother of four. She has led a blessed life as a wife, mother, volunteer, and business professional. Kathleen is the program leader of the Order of Malta's Quarterly Mass and Luncheon event for the moms and babies at Casa Teresa.

ALANNA PSOMAS

• • •

Alanna Psomas is the loving mother of four children and nine grandchildren. She has been married to her husband Tim for 49 years. Because of her belief that you should grow where you are planted, she has always volunteered in the community and school where she lived both in the Los Angeles area and Orange County.

DIANN LEVECKE

• • •

Diann LeVecke is the devoted mother of three children and 13 grandchildren. Diann and her husband of 43 years, Tim reside in Villa Park. This stay-at-home mom spent her time volunteering and taking leadership roles at her children's schools, including leading a $3 million capital campaign for the construction of Rosary's multi-purpose building.

BONNIE ALLEN-LUNA

• • •

Bonnie Allen-Luna, a Casa Teresa alumna, is the devoted mother of three sons with a baby girl on the way. She and Angel, her husband of nine years, reside in Irvine. Her passions involve spending quality time with her family, including her children's sports activities, church and home Bible studies. Bonnie also loves mentoring women in recovery and sharing the gifts of faith, hope and love.
