2010 Catholic Charities Mardi Gras Ball King and Queen

WHEREAS, Supervisor Bill Campbell and Supervisor Patricia Bates wish to congratulate Jim and Susan Tecca on the honor of being named the 2010 Catholic Charities Mardi Gras Ball King and Queen; and

WHEREAS, Jim and Susan's service in the faith arena encompasses being very active in their parishes which include All Hallows in La Jolla, St. Raymond's in Menlo Park, and St. Timothy's in Laguna Niguel; and

WHEREAS, in addition to their roles as active parishioners, they have been engaged in several Catholic ministries that include the Sisters of Mercy in San Diego, St. Michael's Priory, Catholic Charities, and Taller San Jose; they believe that stewardship and sharing of their time, talent, and treasure is a natural part of their daily lives, and they have striven to live in a manner that consistently reflects these values; and

WHEREAS, Jim and Susan have been blessed to have each other side-by-side for forty-five years; they have raised two wonderful children, Paige and Brad; Paige lives in Laguna Niguel and she and her husband have blessed Jim and Susan with two wonderful grandchildren, Morgan and Sean; Brad and his wife, Emma, and their three wonderful children, Gina, Ellie, and Grace, reside in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the annual Catholic Charities Mardi Gras Ball is an opportunity to gather, congratulate, recognize, and pay tribute to individuals whose contribution of time, energy, talent, treasure, faith, and resources demonstrate the spirit of giving and making a positive, far-reaching, and enduring impact throughout the community and in people's lives; and

WHEREAS, Orange County's Catholic community, Catholic Charities, and the people of Orange County are fortunate to be served by individuals of the caliber of Jim and Susan Tecca, who display a special and deep concern for the education, health, welfare, happiness, prosperity, and success for their fellow mankind; their devoted and industrious service to Catholic Charities, the Catholic community, and to the people of Orange County is worthy of much thanks and recognition;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT SUPERVISOR BILL CAMPBELL AND SUPERVISOR PATRICIA BATES do hereby congratulate Jim and Susan Tecca for their selection as the King and Queen of Catholic Charities 2010 Mardi Gras Ball, commend them for their excellence in serving the Catholic community and offer them sincere best wishes for continued success in all of their future endeavors.
