The 2011
ANAHEIM
MAYOR'S

PRAYER BREAKFAST

Hosted by the honorable Tom Tait

Featuring

Bill Bennett

William J. Bennett is a No. 1 New York Times best-selling author, radio talk show host of Morning in America and political television commentator on CNN. He served as Secretary of Education under Ronald Reagan, then Drug Czar under President George H.W. Bush. His national bestsellers include The Book of Virtues, The American Patriot's Almanac; and his three-volume history, America: The Last Best Hope. Bennett's new book, The Book of Man: Readings on the Path to Manhood, will be available to our prayer breakfast audience before its official release this fall. An educator and dynamic speaker, Bennett is the Washington Fellow of the Claremont Institute and has been named one of the most influential individuals in America.

Casting Crowns

Over four million album sales, a GRAMMY Award, an American Music Award, 23 Dove Awards, and eight chart-topping radio singles make CASTING CROWNS one of the most respected bands in the world today. Their lyrics are bold, honest, and hard-hitting — challenging people of every age to discover the living and loving God.
