Supervisors to Consider Candidates for Three Vacant County Offices

(Santa Ana, CA) — The Orange County Board of Supervisors is now accepting applications from qualified candidates as they seek to fill three elected offices that are currently vacant.

The Board is seeking candidates for possible appointment to the offices of Auditor-Controller, Clerk-Recorder and Public Administrator. Since these are all elected offices, any individual appointed must be a registered voter within the County of Orange and be qualified to vote for that office at the time of appointment. The Board appointment will be effective until January 2015, when individuals selected by the voters through the 2014 primary and general elections would take office.

Information about the positions, including job descriptions and a link to the on-line application, can be found on the County's website at www.ocgov.com/jobs. Qualified individuals are encouraged to review the job descriptions to determine if they meet the qualifications and are interested in being considered by the Board of Supervisors. Applications are due before 12 Midnight on January 15, 2013. Candidates will be reviewed through a process to be established by the Board of Supervisors, who will interview selected individuals during February and March 2013.

For more information about these opportunities, please contact Marguerite Adams at (714) 834-6199.
