

Ask the Doc

Everything you've ever wanted to know about memory loss, dementia, current and future research, and more. Bring YOUR Questions

Ask the Doc, presented by UCI MIND – UC Irvine Institute for Memory Impairments and Neurological Disorders, Orange County's only federal and state designated research and diagnostic center. UCI MIND researchers and clinicians are researching ways to make memories last a lifetime.

Thursday, March 29, 2012

12:30 – 3:00 PM

Buena Park Senior Activity Center (S.A.C.)

Walter D. Ehlers Community Recreation Center

8150 Knott Ave., Buena Park, CA 90620

Reservations are required. Seating is limited!

Call 714-236-3870

UCI MIND panelists will present a brief overview about dementia. The major portion of the program is reserved for YOUR questions and answers.

Cordula Dick-Muehlke, Ph.D., Director of Education

Malcolm B. Dick, Ph.D., Senior Neuropsychologist

Aimee Pierce, M.D., Neurologist

David H. Cribbs, Ph.D., Neuroscientist

Special Guests:

John M. W. Moorlach, Chair, Orange County Board of Supervisors

Karen Roper, Director of Community Services, County of Orange

PLUS: Bridge and Your Brain: Staying in the Game –
Bridge and the War Against Dementia!

Herbert Schwartz: UCI MIND Advisory Board Member

Representatives of the Laguna Woods and Long Beach Bridge Clubs will offer opportunities for beginner classes.

No charge for this event. Refreshments will be provided.