

Habitat for Humanity of Orange County is looking for families for affordable home ownership opportunities.

If you:

- are a legal resident of the United States
- have a steady income between 30%-80% of the median income in Orange County
- are credit worthy
- are willing to partner with us

... you are invited to attend one of our orientations in the first half of 2007.

English	April 26 May 31 June 28	7:00pm Thursdays	University United Methodist Church 18422 Culver Drive, Irvine, 92612
	April 10 May 8 June 12	7:00pm Tuesdays	Community Center 25925 Camino del Avion San Juan Capistrano, 92675
Spanish	April 18 May 16 June 13	7:00pm Wednesdays	St. Joseph's Center in the Library 480 South Batavia St., Orange, 92868
	April 10 May 8 June 12	7:00pm Tuesdays	Community Center 25925 Camino del Avion San Juan Capistrano, 92675
Vietnamese	Held as needed. Please call (714) 537-0604 to schedule an orientation.

If you have a medical disability which prevents you from attending one of our regularly scheduled orientations, please call the Habitat for Humanity office to make other arrangements.

Follow the Habitat for Humanity signs to the meeting room.

Please be prompt for all meetings; doors close ten minutes after meeting begins.

If you have any questions, please call the Habitat for Humanity office at (714) 434-6200
Si habla español, llame a (714) 434-6200 x760 para información en orientaciones en español.