

News Release

February 5, 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mission Viejo's spring Leisure Time publication now online

The City of Mission Viejo's spring Leisure Time publication is now available online, offering detailed information about upcoming special events and exciting programs and classes that span the next few months.

This City publication at <http://cityofmissionviejo.org/News.aspx?cat=Publications> ushers in springtime with information about community events such as Up In the Air on March 16; Bunny Days on March 30; Earth Day/Arbor Day Festival and Volunteer Planting on April 27; and the two-day spectacular Arts Alive and Street Painting Festival May 4-5. The publication also features information about supporting our adopted troops at the annual Tee It Up Fore Marines tournament on April 12.

Inside the pages of this detailed City guide is information about community excursions, fitness and sports programs, teen classes and programs for the young and young at heart. So don't delay in checking it out today!

###