

News Release

November 7, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City will recognize veterans in special ceremony Sunday

The City of Mission Viejo will recognize local veterans in a moving ceremony on Sunday, November 11. The annual Veterans Day ceremony is at 2 p.m. at the Norman P. Murray Community and Senior Center, 24932 Veterans Way.

The ceremony will include a Color Guard, rifle salute, taps and Colonel Joseph Russell from the U.S. Marine Corps Headquarters Battalion First Marine Division serving as the keynote speaker. Dawn Wright, the "famed voice" of the Los Angeles Angels and Anaheim Ducks, and the Southern California Children's Advances Chorus will perform.

Refreshments compliments of Fairhaven Memorial Services and It's a Grind Coffee House will be served at Veterans Plaza right after the ceremony.

For more information, call 949-470-3061. To see a clip of last year's ceremony, visit <http://youtu.be/Czwn3bYZgjY>.

###