

Cyber Safety and Bullying

A COURSE FOR PARENTS

The American Academy of Pediatrics calls cyber bullying the “most common online risk for all teens.” As a parent, what is your internet and social networking I.Q.?

This class will provide a parent with the knowledge and tools needed to effectively supervise their children in the online world of social networks. Topics will include:

- What is cyber bullying?
- New anti-bullying laws.
- Current bullying trends with examples found in RSM schools.
- Tools and strategies on how to properly supervise children online.
- What to do if your child is a victim of online harassment.

Date and Time: Monday, March 31th, 2014 at 6:00 to 8:30 PM

Location: Rancho Santa Margarita Bell Tower Regional Community Center

Ages: This parents only class will be discussing graphic examples of bullying and the emotional impact that it has on young people and it is not suitable for young people under 18 years old.

Fee: Free

Registration: Pre-registration is required (class #540610 C1), to register, please visit www.cityofrsm.org/classregistration or call 949.216.9700.

Instructor: Child Safety Deputy Clay Cranford

For course content information please contact Child Safety Deputy Cranford at 949.635.1830.