Summer Concerts Are Here Again!

Rancho Santa Margarita, CA – Summer is here and it's time for the City of Rancho Santa Margarita's Summer Concerts.

In partnership with SAMLARC and the Bell Tower Foundation, the City of Rancho Santa Margarita will provide a variety of musical performances throughout the summer.

The concert series will begin on Sunday, July 12 at 6:00 p.m. in Central Park at Civic Plaza with Springsteen. This premier tribute to the boss that will take you back in time to 1975, just after the release of Bruce's breakthrough album, "Born to Run".

Following Springsteen, on July 19, Hello Cleveland will dazzle you with their impressive musical palette ranging from jazz to disco, current Top 40 to alternative rock, 80's hits and everything in between. On July 26, be sure to join us for an evening of Motown hits performed by Stone Soul.

Things will heat up on August 2, when Hot August will be here to entertain everyone with the sounds of Neil Diamond. On August 9, Swing Shift will have a little of everything that is sure to entertain everyone and on August 16, Neon Nation will play 80's hits at the final concert of the 2009 series.

Bring blankets, chairs and a picnic basket with goodies or enjoy treats for sale by one of the many food vendors participating in the event.

For more event information, visit the City's Web site at www.cityofrsm.org or call 949.216.9700 x 1250.
