

News Release

November 8, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Winter Leisure Time now online giving community glimpse of upcoming events, activities

The City's winter Leisure Time publication is now available online, offering detailed information about upcoming special events and exciting programs and classes that span the next few months.

The publication, available at www.cityofmissionviejo.org, features information on an array of community activities and events such as the 42nd Annual Mission Viejo Gifts & Goodies Boutique on Saturday, November 17. One of Orange County's most popular holiday shopping experiences, the boutique is from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Norman P. Murray Community and Senior Center and features local crafters and artisans. The publication also features the scoop on holiday events like Santa's Arrival and Celebration on November 25; the 40th Annual Holiday Home Lighting Contest; and Santa Paws on December 8.

Inside the pages of this detailed City guide is information about the January 11 Community Health Fair along with community excursions, fitness and sports programs, teen classes and programs for the young and young at heart.

###